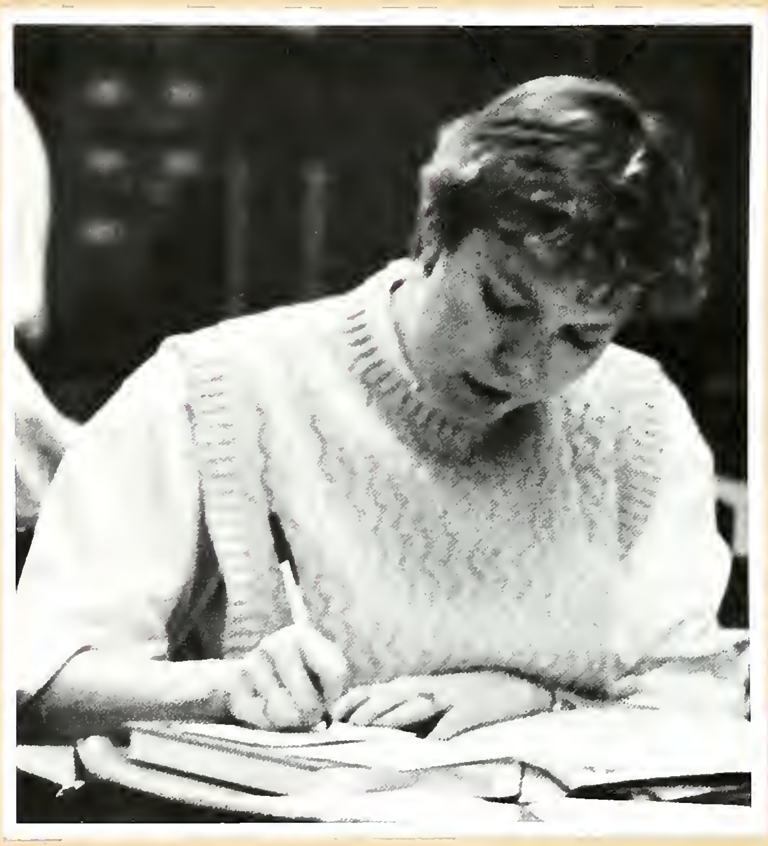
At Montevallo people come together whose lives do not always rhyme.
Growing, learning, and reaching new heights time after time.



Time after time we study
into the night
Sometimes not finishing until it is light

Time after time we remember friend's names and faces
Cold rainy days and warm sunny places.

Senior March

One night a year, at exactly midnight, the tower chimes ring thirteen times and fear strikes the hearts of all underclassmen. Seniors Round-up the underclassmen, chanting "pray for the dead and the dead will pray for you." A trial is then held in Palmer auditorium. After the trial, the underclassmen are marched around campus and are finally initiated. Underclassmen have to be initiated if they want to march when they are seniors.

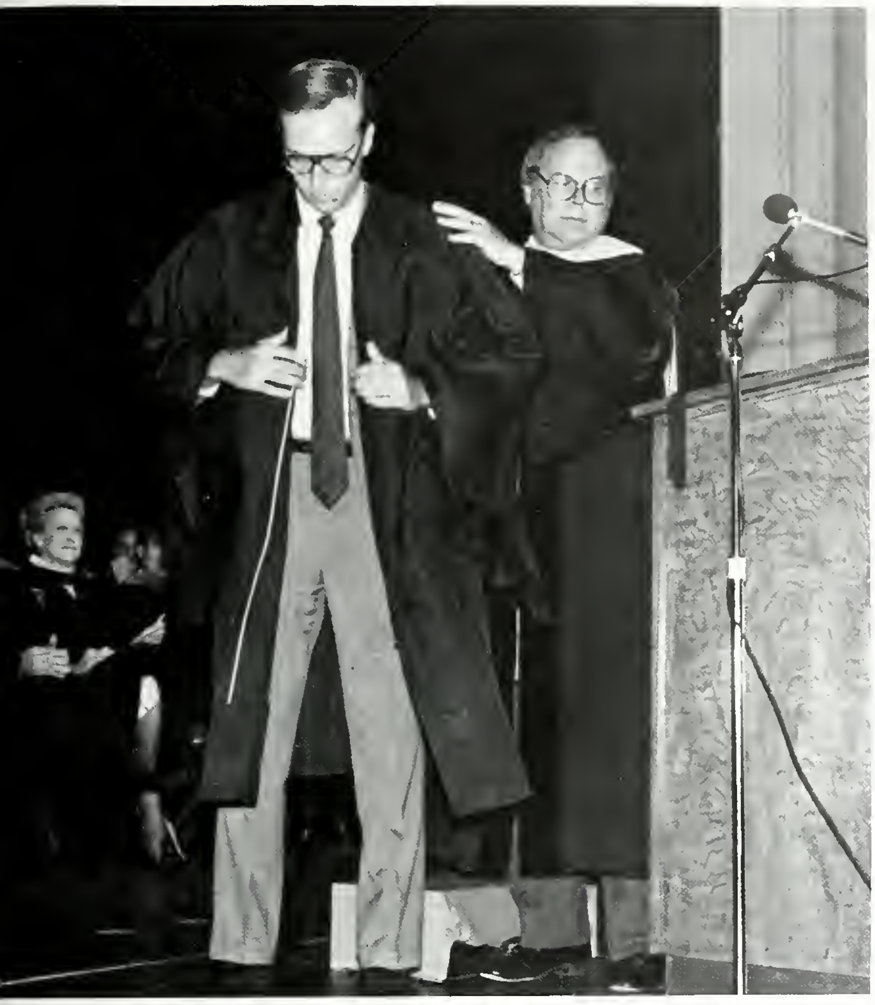
Founders Day

The theme of the eighty-eighth Founders Day was "The Learning Society and the Community." Dr. James F. Vickery presided over the convocation which occurred in Palmer Hall. The guest speaker was Miss Nina Miglionico who is an attorney and a member of the City Council of Birmingham.

Dr. Bill D. Fancher, acting vice president, robed senior class president, Paul Barber, in the robing of the seniors ceremony. ODK taps were also made at this time.



Republicans and Democrats seemed to pop up from nowhere in the early Fall as Montevallo students geared up for the presidential, congressional, and senatorial elections on November 6. Shirts, bumpers, windows, and doors were generously adorned with various types of campaign propoganda. In a mock election sponsored by the SGA, students cast their votes overwhelmingly for Ronald Reagan over Walter Mondale. Meanwhile, former Congressman Albert Lee Smith narrowly defeated Senator Howell Heflin.

The campus was fortunate to host both Congressman Smith and Senator Heflin prior to the election. Neither President Reagan nor Vice-president Mondale visited our fair campus.

1984-85 was a "roaring" success for the Zeta Delta Chapter of Alpha Delta Pi. The sisters enthusiastically participated in various philanthropy projects, such as the annual kidnapping of the presidents, and a hula-hoop-a-thon, which helped raise money for the Ronald McDonald House.

They also held many social events, including a Generic Party, with Phi Mu, a "paint the Town" fall formal, and the annual "Black Diamond Ball." The sisters also enjoyed a Halloween party, Christmas party, a Favorite Professor Tea, and a Parents luncheon.

Alpha Delta Pi is a true sisterhood, full of laughter, fun, and a concern for each other.

Alpha Kappa Alpha, the first black Greek letter sorority, was organized at Howard University in Washington D.C., in January 1908. AKA has grown tremendously since its founding, with presently over 100,000 members world wide.

First concieved as an instrument for enhancing the social and intellectual aspects of college life, AKA serves to provide mental stimulation with chosen friends and close associates.

Today, the influence and concern of AKA extends far beyond campus gates and student interests. The major goals of her program activities center upon significant issues.

Mu Mu chapter of AKA has kept its allegience to national interests and provided many services to UM.

Chi Omega Sorority offers many opportunities for its members to grow as individuals during their college years. The sorority is very involved with activities to help others such as the Bike-A-Thon and Send a Mouse to College for the American Cancer Society. At Christmas, we tried to reach the necessary needs of a family.

During the school year, we enjoy exciting events such as the Fall Party and Spring Formal. Parents Day and Favorite Professor Dinner are two special banquets held honoring our parents and professors. The members are proud of all our accomplishments. The one accomplishment we are most proud of this past year is attaining the panhellinic scholarship trophy.

PER CRUCEM CRESCENS

The brothers of Lamda Chi Alpha celebrated their Diamond Anniversary by sending Mike Lonnergan to New Orleans to our General Assembly. We re-affirmed our position as this campus' premier parties with the 60's party, the Punk party, the Gangster party, the Chili party, and a mixer with the Alpha Gams. Athletically, we're very proud of our perfect record in basketball. We raised money for St. Judes Hospital by having a car wash-a-thon. We finished the year by having our Alumni Bar-B-Que, at which John Eastman was honored as outstanding Alumnus.

The Gamma Omega Chapter of Pi Kappa Phi has experienced a rewarding and enjoyable academic year. The chapter's efforts to raise scholastic achievement among its members were rewarded with success. The standards that were set for the chapter were likewise extended to those whom would join in the brotherhood. Although requirements for membership are the most stringent among organizations at the university, Pi Kappa Phi enjoyed a successful rush and those who pledged themselves have proven worthy of the challenge.

Organizations

SGA

The Student Government Association at the University of Montevallo was first petitioned in 1916, and, since that time, it has served as a vital link between the student body and the administration. Each year the SGA attempts to mediate, entertain, and inform.

This year the SGA wrestled with issues as public as the Reynolds Hall crisis and as private as the Brooke Hall tissue issue.

The SGA Officers: (counter-clockwise) Vic Pierce, president; Scott Brunner, vice-president; DeAnna Cataldo, entertainment chairman; Amy Gartman, student trustee

SGA sponsored activities reflected the current interests of the students. Fall programs included a voter registration drive and a mock election, and Spring provided the perfect backdrop for the Miss University of Montevallo Pageant and the first annual Homecoming Parade. The past was not forgotten as "The Tradition Continues" with the annual Elite Night Ceremony to honor outstanding seniors on November 29.

The SGA Officers continued: Trey South, director of communications; Roy Watts, chaplain; Margaret Marshall, treasurer; Darnell Ott, senate secretary; Judy Misenheimer, executive secretary.

Some people seem to work just for the help of it, and so it is with the class senators. Comprising the bulk of the senate, these students man the many committees which make the senate run. From publicity to elections, special events to constitutional rules and regulations, senate members work diligently to fulfill the needs and meet the interests of their peers.

Sophomore senators: Melissa Adams, Nancy Brindley, Pam Callaghan, Tracy Chitwood, Norman Darden, Sean Doyle, Leigh Jarvis, Lisa Lilly, Danny Scott, James Smith, Lance Tucker, and Leanne Wood.

All senate meetings are open to everyone and are usually held in Comer Auditorium. Whienever a student has a gripe or a problem on campus, the SGA is the place to go for help or direction.

Junior senators: Jay Briley, John Cook, Libby Culver, John Eubank, Chris Gauldin, Theresa Knopps, Barry Logan, and Jana Roe.

Senior senators: Susan Brackin, Amber Davenport, Kim Durham, Lesley Hawkins, Jennifer Lockhart, Debbie Ousley, and David Zavidil.

The SGA has progressed from making regulations for "quiet and decorum" to working to guarantee students their rights as members of the university community and as citizens of the country. In the past, the SGA has been most effective when many students work together; therefore, all students are encouraged to become actively involved.

College senators: Byers Reid, Ben Baxley, College of Business; Karolyn Morgan, Tiffany Sirles, College of Arts and Sciences; Patricia Bowles, Lisa Chisolm, College of Education; Stan Mims, College of Fine Arts; Po Lim, International Students

Committee chairman: Jay Briley, Norman Darden, Leighanne Wood, Susan Brackin, Leslie Hawkins, Leigh Jarvis, John Eubank, and Paul Barber.

OMICRON DELTA KAPPA

Omicron Delta Kappa is a national collegiate leadership honor society which recognizes and encourages superior scholarship and leadership in men and women of exemplary character. The UM circle was founded in 1978.

MONTEVALLO MASTERS

The purpose of the Montevallo Masters is to provide official hosts and hostesses as representatives of The University of Montevallo at university functions. This year's masters are: Jerry Bullock, Candy Berry, Mary Farrington, Kim Fox, Kerry McConnell, Leslie Hawkins, Lisa Rogers, Cindy Covin, and Susan Slate.

ROTC

BACCHUS: Boost Alcohol Consciousness Concerning the Health of University Students

BACCHUS—Boost Alcohol Consciousness Concerning the Health of University Students is a national organization which promotes responsible drinking for those who choose to drink, and a hassle-free abstinance for those who choose not to drink. Membership is open to all interested students.

The executive committee includes (left to right) Claire Mikos—Publicity Chairman, Evette Pearson—Secretary-Treasurer, Howard Bayless—Vice President, and Marcia Mechler—President.

While most Montevallo students are picking up the Alabamian, thumbing through for Big Jack coupons, there are other students walking around campus with bags under their eyes. This dedicated hard-working Alabamian staff, led by Martha Crocker (right) is willing to do what it takes to make this years publications full of quality and excellence. Members of the staff are: Martha Crocker, Joey Bunch, Candy Berry, George Codone, Joe Naish, John Johnson, Kenneth Carter, Margaret Purcell, Leigh Bailey, Amy Cates, Delphine Elder, Paul Gagliano, Danny Gamble, Concetta Hubbard, Larry Jenkins, Terri Johnson, Nancy Kurtz, Tim Lupinacci, Colin McFarland, and Phillip Proctor.

It is the major professional organization whose sole purpose is concerned with all aspects of the growth and development of children from infancy through early adolescence. The officers of 1984-85 were Karla Dean/Becky Key—Presidents, Donna Cockrell—Vice President, Peggy Parsons—Secretary, Joy Morring—Treasurer, Dena Wilcox—Publicity, Katsy Northcutt—Special Projects.

Cobblestone Productions

Cobblestone Productions, which is funded by the SGA is a group of students who volunteer their time to put on productions for the students. This year they sponsored John Jarretts Tribe, 24 Karat, The Producers, Chuck Mangione and John Cafferty and the Beaver Brown Band in Concert. They showed fifty movies in various places. They had watermelon cuttings on the quad, a magician, a comedian and sponsored four orientation parties honoring incoming freshmen and transfer students. They were responsible for renting the sound system to campus organizations over twenty five times. These events gave students a chance to meet and work with professional people in the entertainment business. Several of these people with the organization have acquired part-time employment from their experience with Cobblestone Productions. Members include Billy Mathis, Jeff Berger, Jay Wilson, Nancy Brindley, Lisa Chamberlain, Virginia Stern, Anthony Davis, DeAnna Cataldo, Faron Brindley, Avis Richardson, Phillip Morgan, Carl Lesher, Sheldon Inge, Carl Brooks, Brian Sturdivan, Rosie Joseph, Anita Champion, Jack Cox, Tom Sullivan, Cori Ericson, Natalie Johnson, J.B. College Republicans

University of Montevallo College Republicans had their best year ever! They were involved in politics on all levels. On the campus, the clout of the party was demonstrated as Albert Lee Smith and Ronald Reagan won the SGA mock election. In the county, CR's went door to door and phoned for the victorious Shelby county candidates. They attended dinners and lectures hosted by republicans such as President Reagan, Senator Denton, Vin Weber, Jack Kemp, and Frank Fahrenkopf.

UMCR's hosted their state convention which featured Phyllis Schafley, Emory Folmar, National College Republicans, as well as other state republican leaders. At this convention, Susan Brackin was elected to lead the State CR movement with Nancy Brindley and Stan Mims also serving as state officers.

The executive committee at Montevallo includes: Susan Brackin—chairman, Nancy Brindley—Vice chairman, Kim Norton—secretary, Byrd Johnson—treasurer, Mark Ponder—executive director, Stan Mims—state committee man, Ahrian Davis—state committee woman, Cheri Allen and Martin Keefer—campaign chairmen, Margaret Purcell—membership chairman, Diana Bishop—publicity chairman.

THE CAFETERIA WORKERS

Bill Plott

The yearbook staff wishes to dedicate its 1984-85 annual to BILL PLOTT. His years of dedicated service to the students and to the University on the whole has earned him this recognition. We, the staff of the 1984-85 MONTAGE congratulate him for his ability to work with the students and his patience with us.

If a man does not Keep pace with his companions,
Perhaps it is because he hears
A different drummer.
Let Him step to the music
Which he hears,
However measured or far away.
—Thoreau
